SUNY Optometry Sexual Violence Response Policy and Procedures

In accordance with the Victim/Survivor Bill of Rights, victims/survivors of sexual violence shall have the right to pursue more than one of the following options below or choose not to participate in any of the following options. In addition, a victim/survivor may withdraw their complaint or involvement at any time.

I. Reporting for Students:

A. Students who are victims/survivors of sexual violence have the right to confidentially report the incident to College officials who can assist in obtaining services (more information on confidential report is available in the Options for Confidentially Disclosing Sexual Violence Policy). They can report the incident:

- Anonymously via the internet by using the following URL:

When a victim/survivor utilizes these hotlines, they are also encouraged to contact a College resource so that appropriate action can be taken at the College as well.

C. Report the incident to one of the following College officials who will offer privacy and assistance with obtaining resources (In some cases, these officials might be required by law and College policy to inform one or more College officials about the incident, including but not limited to the Title IX Coordinator):

University Police Desk at 42nd Street Lobby (Lieutenant/Police Officer);

D. Incidents that occur on campus should be reported to University Police. University Police will provide assistance with reporting to local law enforcement when an incident occurs off campus. University Police will coordinate with the New York City Police Department for investigation of all reported on-campus incidents of sexual violence.

III. Resources:

- To obtain effective intervention services, counseling may be obtained from the University Eye Center’s Office of Social Work (Rm. 843 or Rm. 529)
- Off campus counseling services may be obtained from local resources, such as: Safe Horizon: (212) 227 3000 (SafeHorizon Website Resources)
- Employees may access referrals to counseling services through NYS Employee Assistance Program (EAP) at http://www.worklife.ny.gov/eap/ or 1-800-822-0244
Sexual contact can transmit Sexually Transmitted Infections (STI) and may result in pregnancy. Information about testing for STIs and emergency contraception is available by visiting: http://www.nyc.gov/html/doh/html/living/std-clinics.shtml

Within 96 hours of an assault, you can get a Sexual Assault Forensic Examination (commonly referred to as a rape kit) at a designated Center of Excellence Hospital. While there should be no charge for a rape kit, there may be a charge for medical or counseling services off campus and, in some cases, insurance may be billed for these services. You are encouraged to let hospital personnel know if you do not want your insurance policyholder to be notified about your access to these services. The New York State Office of Victim Services may be able to assist in compensating victims for health care and counseling services, including emergency funds. More information may be found here: http://www.ovs.ny.gov/files/ovs_rights_of_cv_booklet.pdf, or by calling 1-800-247-8035. IV. Protection and Accommodations:

- The victim has a right to have the College issue a “No Contact Order.” This means that continuing to contact the protected individual is a violation of College policy and subject to additional charges for violation of code of conduct; if the accused and a protected person observe each other in a public place, it is the responsibility of the accused to leave the area immediately without directly contacting the protected person.

- The victim has a right to have assistance from University Police or other College officials in obtaining an Order of Protection or, if outside of New York State, an equivalent protective or restraining order.

- The victim has a right to receive a copy of the Order of Protection or equivalent and have an opportunity to meet or speak with a University Police official who can explain the order and answer any questions about it, including information on the Order about the responsibility of the accused to stay away from the protected person(s). That burden DOES NOT rest with the protected person(s).

- The victim has a right to an explanation of the consequences for violating these orders, including but not limited to arrest, additional conduct charges and interim suspension.

- The victim has a right to have assistance from University Police in effecting an arrest when an individual violates an Order of Protection or, if outside of New York State, an equivalent protective or restraining order within the jurisdiction of University Police or, if outside of the jurisdiction to call on and assist local law enforcement in effecting an arrest for violating such an order.

- When the accused is a student and presents a continuing threat to the health and safety of the community, the victim has a right to have the accused subject to interim suspension pending the outcome of a conduct process.

- When the accused is not a member of the College community, the victim has a right to have assistance from University Police or other College officials in obtaining a Persona non Grata (PNG) letter, subject to legal requirements and College policy.

- The victim has a right to obtain reasonable and available interim measures and accommodations that effect a change in academic, employment or other applicable arrangements in order to ensure safety, prevent retaliation and avoid an ongoing hostile environment. While victims/survivors may request accommodations through any of the offices referenced in this policy, the following office can serve as a point of contact to assist with these measures:
  - University Police – Assistant Chief Dapo Adurogbola, Rm 3M12, ext. 5578
  - Human Resources – Mr. Doug Schading, Director of HR, Rm. 933, ext. 5882

- To file student conduct charges against the accused. Conduct proceedings are governed by the procedures set forth in the College’s Student Handbook Formal Complaint Procedure [online Student Handbook] as well as federal and New York State law, including the due process provisions of the United States and New York State Constitutions.

- Throughout conduct proceedings, the accused and the victim/survivor will have:
  - The same opportunity to have access to an advisor of their choice. Participation of the advisor in any proceeding is governed by federal law and the Student Code of Conduct;
  - The right to a prompt response to any complaint and to have their complaint investigated and adjudicated in an impartial and thorough manner by individuals who receive annual training in conducting investigations of sexual violence, the effects of trauma, and other issues related to sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence and stalking.
  - The right to an investigation and process conducted in a manner that recognizes the legal and policy requirements of due process and is not conducted by individuals with a conflict of interest.
  - The right to receive written or electronic notice of any meeting or hearing they are required to or are eligible to attend.
  - The right to have a conduct process run concurrently with a criminal justice investigation and proceeding, except for temporary delays as requested by external municipal entities...
while law enforcement gathers evidence. Temporary delays should not last more than 10 days except when law enforcement specifically requests and justifies a longer delay.

- The right to review available evidence in the case file.
- The right to a range of options for providing testimony via alternative arrangements, including telephone/videoconferencing or testifying with a room partition.
- The right to exclude prior sexual history or past mental health history from admittance in college disciplinary stage that determines responsibility. Past sexual violence findings may be admissible in the disciplinary stage that determines sanction.
- The right to ask questions of the decision maker and via the decision maker indirectly to request responses from other parties and any other witnesses present.
- The right to make an impact statement during the point of the proceeding where the decision maker is deliberating on appropriate sanctions.
- The right to simultaneous (among the parties) written or electronic notification of the outcome of a conduct proceeding, including the sanction(s).
- The right to know the sanction(s) that may be imposed on the accused based upon the outcome of the conduct proceeding and the reason for the actual sanction imposed. For students found responsible for sexual assault, the available sanctions are suspension with additional requirements and expulsion/dismissal.
- The right to choose whether to disclose or discuss the outcome of a conduct hearing.

VI. When the accused is an Employee: Formal Complaint- Office of Human Resources – 9th Floor

When the accused is an employee of the College, a victim/survivor may also report the incident to the Office of Human Resources or he or she may request assistance from the Office of Social Work, University Police or the Office of Student Affairs to report to Human Resources. Disciplinary proceedings will be conducted in accordance with applicable collective bargaining agreements. When the accused is an employee of an affiliated entity or vendor of the College, College officials will, at the request of the victim/survivor, assist in reporting the incident to the appropriate office of the vendor or affiliated entity. If the response of the vendor or affiliated entity is not sufficient, College officials will assist in obtaining a Persona non Grata (PNG) letter, subject to legal requirements and College policy.

  Title IX Coordinator- Mr. Doug Schading, Rm 933 or Ext. 5882
  Deputy Title IX Coordinator - Ms. Guerda Fils, Rm. 931 or Ext. 5883
Definition of terms used:

- Accused, or accused individual: a person accused of perpetrating a crime or conduct code violation.

- Advisor: any individual who provides the accused or victim/survivor with support, guidance and/or advice.

- Affirmative Consent: “consent” is an unambiguous, knowing, informed, and voluntary agreement between all participants to engage in sexual activity.

- Bystander: a person who observes a crime, impending crime, conflict or unacceptable behavior.

- Bystander intervention: a bystander’s safe and positive actions to prevent harm or intervene when there is a risk posed to another person. Bystander intervention includes recognizing situations of potential harm, identifying safe and effective intervention options, and taking action to intervene.

- Code: As used here, this refers to the College’s Student Code of Conduct for which changes are subject to the approval of the College Council.

- Dating violence: violent act committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim/survivor. The existence of the relationship is determined by the victim’s statement and investigation into a number of factors such as the length of the relationship, the type of the relationship, and frequency of the relationship.

- Domestic violence: any misdemeanor or felony crime committed by the current or former spouse of intimate partner. It can also involve a person sharing a child with the victim/survivor and a person cohabitating with or has cohabitated with the victim/survivor as a spouse or intimate partner.

- Order of Protection: an official order issued by the court to limit the behavior of someone who arms or threatens to harm another person. In most cases in NYS, the order is issued by a criminal court or family court to address situations involving domestic violence.

- Preponderance of the Evidence: the standard of proof in sexual harassment and sexual assault cases, which asks whether it is “more likely than not” that the sexual harassment or sexual violence occurred. If the evidence presented meets this standard, then the accused should be found responsible.

- Privileged or Confidential Resources: Individuals that, with very few exceptions, are confidential resources to those wishing to disclose sexual violence. Such resources include licensed medical professionals, licensed mental health counselors, and clergy.

-  Protected person/individual: a person protected by an Order of Protection, which is issued by the court to limit the behavior of someone who harms or threatens to harm another person.

-  Responsible employee: an employee with the authority to redress sexual violence; who has been given the duty of reporting incidents of sexual violence or any other misconduct by students to the Title IX Coordinator or other appropriate College designee; or whom a student could reasonably believe has this authority or duty. If a responsible employee is aware of sexual violence, then the college is considered on notice of that sexual violence.
• Retaliation: adverse action against another person for reporting a violation or for participating in any way in the investigation or conduct process. Retaliation includes harassment and intimidation, including but not limited to violence, threats of violence, property destruction, adverse educational or employment consequences, and bullying.

- Sex discrimination: includes all forms of sexual harassment, sexual assault, and other sexual violence by employees, students, or third parties against employees, students, or third parties. Students, employees, and third parties are prohibited from harassing others whether or not the harassment occurs on the College campus or whether it occurs during work hours. Sex discrimination can be carried out by other students, college employees, or third parties. All acts of sex discrimination, including sexual harassment and sexual violence, are prohibited by Title IX.

- Sexual assault: a physical sexual act or acts committed against another person without consent. Sexual assault is an extreme form of sexual harassment. Sexual assault includes what is commonly known as “rape” (including what is commonly called “date rape” and “acquaintance rape”), fondling, statutory rape and incest. For statutory rape, the age of consent in New York State is 17 years old.

- Sexual harassment: unwelcome, gender-based verbal, non-verbal, or physical conduct that is sexual in nature and sufficiently severe, persistent, or pervasive that it unreasonably interferes with, denies, or limits someone’s ability to participate in or benefit from the College’s educational program and/or activities, and is based on power differentials, the creation of a hostile environment, or retaliation.

- Sexual violence: physical sexual acts perpetrated against a person’s will or perpetrated where a person is incapable of giving consent. A number of different acts fall into the category of sexual violence, including rape, sexual assault, sexual battery, sexual abuse, and sexual coercion.

- Title IX Coordinator: is a designated college official responsible for tracking sex discrimination complaints and spotting patterns. The Coordinator needs to know that the victim/survivor was provided with all the necessary and required information about resources, remedies, and accommodations, and will assist in filing complaints, reaching out to law enforcement, and organizing accommodations.

- Victim/survivor: a person who suffers personal, physical, or psychological injury. The policies use “victim/survivor,” and College officials will ask each individual disclosing or reporting sexual violence how that person wants to be identified--whether as victim, survivor, witness, or another term.

Definition of Affirmative Consent:

Consent:
- Consent is a clear, unambiguous, knowing, informed, and voluntary agreement between all participants to engage in sexual activity.
- Consent is active, not passive.
- Requesting and having consent accepted is the responsibility of the person(s) initiating each specific sexual act regardless of whether the person initiating the act is under the influence of drugs and/or alcohol.
- Consent may be initially given but withdrawn at any time. When consent is withdrawn, sexual activity must stop.
The definition of consent does not vary based upon a participant’s sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or gender expression.

Non-consent:

- Silence, in and of itself, cannot be interpreted as consent.
- Consent cannot be given when it is the result of any coercion, intimidation, force, or threat of harm.
- Consent to any sexual act or prior consensual sexual activity between or with any party does not constitute consent to any other sexual act.
- Consent cannot be given when a person is incapacitated. Incapacitation occurs when an individual lacks the capacity to fully, knowingly choose to decide about participating in sexual activity, whether due to a disability that limits informed sexual decision-making, or because of impairment due to drugs or alcohol (whether such use is voluntary or involuntary), the lack of consciousness or being asleep, being involuntarily restrained, if any of the parties are under the age of 17, or otherwise cannot consent.
